Financial terms often cause fireworks in head. To test a person's edge over finance and it's terms, a game of finance was held on 8th February, 2018. It was one of a kind event wherein a person was supposed to guess the word and impart some knowledge to the audience present. After all, you can still have fun while learning. The event began with the felicitation of our esteemed judges Mr. Ishmeet Singh, Mr. Ashish Thomas, Ms. Gurjot Kaur, Ms. Preeti Gupta. There were great number of entries. It started with the first round Dumbcharades wherein some financial terms were thrown and the participants need to guess that right. The qualified candidates then went to the all round ie. Taboo wherein the financial term needs to be identified by guessing the word on the card without saying the listed words and avoid making it a Taboo. The winners and the runner ups were awarded with cash prizes and certificates. The event was much appreciated and this angle of learning while having loads of fun made it different from others.
