Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Activities: The orientation started with the introduction of the society, what we do, the kind of projects we undertake, our goals, and aspirations that align with the United Nations Foundation. Following that, we had Gita Lakhanpal mam to share her insights about our society, and then she felicitated Principal Sir with a plant. This was followed by a skit prepared by the Preet Team on a girl's first period, which highlighted the stigma around menstrual hygiene and lack of awareness, and how both men and women should approach this, sensitizing both.● Then, we discussed the projects we completed this year, both collaborations and standalone. Following this, there was a fun game of identifying Bollywood movies based on misogyny and stereotypes.● The event concluded with a core team introduction and a vote of thanks by Garima and Deepinder Ma'am.
Main Ideas	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● . The main idea behind the orientation was to introduce students to our initiative and raise awareness among them about the importance of the initiative i.e Girl Up.
Vote of thanks	Garima and Deepinder Mam
