SOFICA - The Society for financial literacy and consumer awareness and Udyamita - The Entrepreneurship Cell, Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College organized Tvesh'18 - Where dreamers meet doers' on the 8 of February 2018. This one day extravaganza attracted a huge crowd from the university and across. The event commenced with Dr. Manmohan Kaur, the Principal, Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa sharing her words of wisdom and extending a warm welcome to the faculty members and the students. With a lot to buy, try, eat and indulge in the event was a much engaging affair. It was kick started by 'Judged' a moot room activity introducing students to the world of law and legal proceedings of a consumer court. Followed by this was the 'Entrepreneurial Bazaar' with the ideology of believing is doing behind the event, it encouraged budding students entrepreneurs to bring their ideas into life and present it to the crowd. The idea generating the maximum revenue, creative decoration of the stall and impeccable marketing skills was declared the winner of the event. 'FinQuest' was the event no finance lover could afford to miss. The participants were judged on their in-depth understanding of financial terms through fun games and activities. 'Ruminate' the student panel discussion provided a platform to all those who think that they have it in them to think on their feet, maintain their temperament in the heat of the moment and effectively articulate their points. The panel was engrossed in an impactful discussion. Last but not the least was the most awaited event 'Finders and Keepers' a treasure hunt which attracted a large number of enthusiastic participation. The students scratched their brains, pondered over the clues and experienced this thrill of chase. The team which made it till the end won the competition. The event was indeed an enticing visit for each and every person. Tvesh' 18 was highly appreciated by the students and faculty members for acting as a thorough knowledge sharing platform and organizing interesting competitions for the students.
