Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● The Abhas event was celebrated on April 12, 2023, with great zeal and enthusiasm. The event was organized by the Umang society to promote creativity, literary skills, and knowledge among the participants. The event comprised four exciting activities, which were held from 10:30 am to 12:30 pm.● The first activity of the event was Creative Writing in Braille, which was conducted from 10:30 am to 11:30 am in the gallery. The purpose of this activity was to provide a platform for visually impaired participants to showcase their creative writing skills in Braille. The participants were given a topic, and they had to write a short essay or a story within a specified time frame. The activity was well-received by the participants, and they displayed their creativity with great passion.● The second activity was an Extempore Competition, which started at 10:30 am and lasted until 11:30 am. The competition was held in Room No. 16. The participants were given a topic and had to deliver a speech on the spot within a given time limit. The participants displayed their excellent oratory skills, and the competition was highly engaging.● Following the Extempore Competition, a Poetry Competition was held in Room No. 16 from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm. The participants were given a theme and had to recite their own poems within a specified time frame. The competition was judged based on creativity, literary skills, and delivery. The participants' poems showcased their deep understanding of the theme, and the competition was a huge success.● The last activity of the event was a Quiz Competition, which started at 11:30 am and lasted until 12:30 pm. The competition was held in the gallery and was open to all participants. The quiz comprised questions from various fields such as general knowledge, literature, and history. The participants displayed their knowledge and competitiveness, and the quiz was an exciting experience.● The Abhas event was a great success, and all the activities were enjoyed by the participants. The event provided an excellent platform for the participants to showcase their creativity, knowledge, and literary skills. The Umang society deserves credit for organizing such an engaging and successful event. We look forward to more such events in the future.

- On April 13, 2023, the Umang Society organized the Lata Mangeshkar National Music Competition in the gallery. The competition started at 11:00 am and lasted until 1:00 pm. The competition was exclusively organized for differently-abled persons to showcase their musical talents. Participants from across the country, of all ages, genders, and abilities were encouraged to participate. The competition comprised various categories such as classical, semi-classical, folk, and Bollywood music. The participants impressed the judges with their outstanding performances, and the competition was tough as there were many talented participants. The judges were renowned music experts who evaluated the performances based on various parameters such as pitch, rhythm, expression, and overall performance. The winners were felicitated with certificates and prizes. The Lata Mangeshkar National Music Competition was a great success, and the Umang Society deserves credit for organizing such an inclusive and inspiring event exclusively for differently-abled persons. The event provided an excellent platform for them to showcase their musical talents and helped to promote diversity and inclusion.
